Walter Campbell Dead

night by a 30 foot fall from the window of a hall of an apartment house.

Dr. Campbell and W. F. Long, Jr., went to Washington Tuesday, and brought the remains to Rockingham Wednesday night. The funeral was held from the residence of W. F. Long, the young man's grandfather, this afternoon, conducted by Rev. John Jordan Douglass, assisted by Revs. Ormond and Coppedge. The joint Methodist and Presbyterian choirs assisted. The pallbearers were Mr. Campbell's personal friends, Lynwood Fowlkes, Fairley Long, Billy McAulay, Charles Mabry, John Coley and Lloyd Campbell. The interment was at Old Eastside beside the grave of his mother, Jennie Long Campbell, who died about 20 years ago.

Walter Campbell was 22 years old. He secured his law license when he was barely 21, but some months ago accepted a government position. He was to have been married May 3rd to Miss Dorothy Powell, of Charlotte, and on Monday night had gone to the apartment occupied by three young ladies (Misses Harley, Lucas and Smitherman, of Troy) who were to assist him in finding an apartment. The young ladies were not at home when he called, and it is presumed he sat in the hall window awaiting their return, and possibly lost his balance.

Among those attending the funeral here today were: Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, Joseph Lee Campbell, Mrs. Julia Black and Mrs. Ashcraft, Dolph Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Miss Dorothy Powell.

How About Your Land?

Was your land sold for Taxes? Did you buy, or do you own land that was advertised in the name of the former owner for failure to pay the Taxes?

When you buy land, be sure to ask and demand that the taxes have been paid—not listed on the tax books—I mean paid to the sheriff and a tax receipt to show for it. Taxes follow the land come up like the grass on it.

If your name appeared among those whose land was advertised in the Rockingham Post-Dispatch as provided by law, and later you were again notified by notice for application for deed, and you have not paid the taxes and costs, be assured we shall apply on May the first to the sheriff for a deed to the county, and then and after interest shall be added at 6% and the additional cost as provided by law. We have no choice in the matter. It is simply the law.

Come at once and save the costs.

Very truly,

J. D. Covington,
County Auditor.
